This surf point is situated the white stone hill with nature scenery to the Indian Ocean and spectacular sunset at late afternoon that creates the romantic view.

Uluwatu Temple

Pura Luhur Uluwatu or Uluwatu Temple is a famous Balinese sea temple in Bali. It is one of the nine directional temples of Bali meant to protect it from evil spirits. This spectacular temple is one to marvel with as it perched at the edge of the rock overlooking the sea as if on guard. As one of the key nine directional temples of Bali, Pura Luhur Uluwatu is meant to protect Bali against the evil. It is expanded in the 11th Century by a Javanese sage, Empu Kuturan. Later another sage from East Java, Dnag Hyang Nirartha is credited to have constructed the padmasana shrines.

The temple is perched at a staggeringly steep cliff as tall as 70 m over the Indian ocean. The temple is inhabited by monkeys, who are notorious for snatching visitors' belongings. They can usually be persuaded into trading the items for fruit, although this only encourages them to steal more.

Jimbaran bay

Jimbaran Beach is directly south of the airport, on the way from Denpasar towards Nusa Dua. Jimbaran village is the narrow neck of Bali Island, and thus it has two remarkably different beaches. On the west, Jimbaran Beach faces the Jimbaran Bay, recently lined by luxurious resorts. On the east, the beach faces the body of water sheltered by Benoa Harbor. Jimbaran is a cove where fleets of fishing boats color the scene.

SEKUMPUL JUNGLE TREKKING TOUR

Sekumpul waterfall is touted as the most beautiful waterfall in Bali. It is fairly close to Niagara Falls Lemukih, only about 2 km away. Understandably, the Village and Village Lemukih Sekumpul indeed neighbors. To see Sekumpul Waterfall close, it takes a bit of effort and struggle. From the parking lot, you have to walk quite far away, down through a dirt road, and the hundreds of stairs, and across the river. When you ride a motorcycle, you can still ride from the parking lot (near the ticket window), to the end of the road paving. After paving the way out, the road turned into a narrow dirt road (footpath). Not long down the path, you arrived at a blank bale (gazebo) with Niagara Falls Sekumpul incredible lure. From the blank bale, the view of Niagara Sekumpul is very pretty in the distance. That makes this waterfall different from most waterfalls, Niagara Sekumpul not just made up of one or two waterfalls. There are at least seven waterfalls scattered in the high cliffs and surrounded by green trees soothes the eyes. Seventh waterfall has a shape and a different height. Absolutely amazing. It is no doubt that Niagara Sekumpul is crowed.

Place to Visit:

- Danu Beratan
- Sekumful Water fall
- Twin Lake

Danu Beratan

The name Ulun Danu, literally means "The Beginning of the Lake" but this might not to claim that the site is the beginning of a lake. It tends to indicate that everything that exists around the lake will have the orientation to the temple site, and cleanliness around the area must be continuously kept. According to the ancient manuscript of the Mengwi Kingdom, Pura Ulun Danu Bratan was built in 1633 by I Gusti Agung Putu, the King of Mengwi, the same person who later built Pura Taman Ayun. Inside the main gate, you come upon a large stupa with carvings, then the main temple Pura Teratai Bang. Then there's a smaller temple, Pura Dalem

Purwa, dedicated to the goddess of food and drinks.

Twin Lakes (1300m)

Buyan and Tamblingan is a pair of lakes located in one of the cool climates and very cold at that time of night in the village area of Pancasari, Sukasada sub-district, Buleleng regency, Bali.
